AUDITION CALL

37 POST CARDS

A FAMILY COMEDY STAMPED IN WEIRDNESS
BY MICHAEL MCKEEVER

AUDITIONS NOW FOR PERFORMANCES IN MAY 2024

37 POSTCARDS AUDITIONS

Village Hall Players is casting its first production for 2024!

37 Postcards is a family comedy stamped with weirdness.

When Avery Sutton returns home after years abroad, he discovers his family is... not quite how he remembers. Forced to either accept the oddities of his family or leave them behind, 37 Postcards suggests that you can go home again... you just never know what you're going to find.

Auditions will be held next Wednesday 6th December and Saturday 9th December for the following roles:

- Avery (M, early 30s) - bright, likable, perhaps a bit nerdy
 - Evelyn (F, 50s) - lovely and gracious, but oblivious to everything around her
 - Stanford (M, 50s) - great warmth and dignity, also somewhat oblivious
 - Aunt Ester (F, 40s/50s) - sweet, daft and surprisingly insightful
 - Gillian (F, 20s/30s) - Avery's fiancé, beautiful with an edge
 - Nana (F) - 97 and looks every minute of it, half deaf, half blind and foul mouthed
- Rehearsals begin in late January/ early February 2024 for early May performance dates.

"In the theatre, ... you immediately find a family. Because you're under stress, you're trying to do something, you're putting on a show, you find brothers and sisters right away."

Alleycat Manor

The DIRT students annual production, written and directed by our own Jenny Strever, was another hit. Everyone had a lot of fun on the day and the audience appreciated all the work the students and crew put into making it so special.
