October 2025

Bringing Live Theatre to Local Rural Communities

WE WON!

Thank you to everyone who voted for us. We are incredibly grateful for your support.

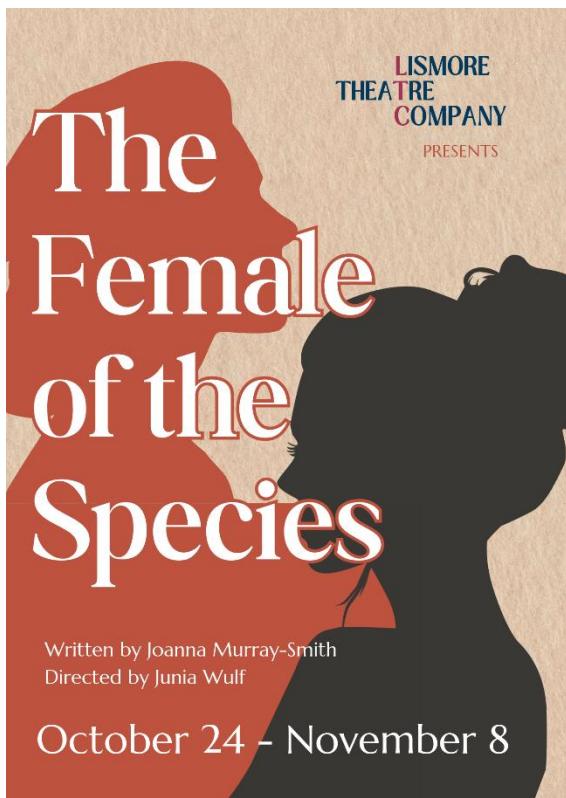

On Wednesday 24th October, two wonderful Greater Bank employees came to the KMI and presented us with one of those big, fake cheques (see photo next page).

We were getting ready for the final rehearsal of Bright. Young. Things. so everyone was represented – students, parents, crew and adult cast, along with the President and Vice President.

The money will be used in part for the DIRT program and in part for much needed storage shelves and hand tools. Again, our sincere thanks.

 Front Row - Kaye Lee; Eden Wilbow; Nerida Phillips; Ruby Farrah; and Kai and Jasmine

On Friday 24th October, Jill Runciman and Lynette Zito attended the Lismore Theatre Company's opening night of its production of The Female of the Species by Joanna Murray-Smith. We were given complimentary tickets for this show which was both amazing and thought provoking. As a result of this lovely invitation, at its last meeting the board of management of Village Hall Players agreed to reciprocate this kindness for our next play coming in March 2026.

The play was fabulous. Great script, fantastic set and very talented actors. If you get a chance, we recommend you go along for a great night.

COMING IN NOVEMBER

Big Voice Choir Workshop

On Saturday 1st November 2025, experienced choir leader Janet Swain from Big Voice Choir (Byron, Mullumbimby, Lismore) will be directing a one-off Choir Workshop at the KMI Hall, between 11am and 1pm.

All are welcome to come and sing - no experience necessary and all ages and abilities welcome.

Cost is $20 or what you can afford.

Tickets available online via <https://www.trybooking.com/DGOTH> or at the door.

We will be learning some choral singing techniques for musical theatre songs.

All attendees will be invited to join our impromptu choir for a song at DIVARAMA.

We look forward to seeing you there.
